Western Christian High School

Hull, Iowa

Oh God, bless Western Christian, The school we hold so dear, And guard and guide and keep her as Thou hast done each year. And make her ever faithful in all the things she does,
To God and His great promise
Of Jesus and His love.

We pray that we at Western will labor for the right, That we will shine for Jesus who is the one true Light; That we will trust the Father, the Spirit and the Son; That when our day's completed, we'll hear a blest "Well done."

March on! March on! Oh let our voices ring;
For we are valiant Sons of God, And servants of the King!

TODAY IS OUR MOMENT

"Youth is a fleeting moment of joy in the morning of our lives,

a moment quickly felt

stubbornly endured and totally cherished."

We should try to catch each moment

of life and live

that moment to tis fullest.

We know that our lives

are not in our hands,

but in God's.

Plans, decisions, changes! Such was the story of Homecoming. Our faithful furnace decided to choose that one day of the year to take a rest! But, everyone cooperated, and our Homecoming activities moved over to Dordt. Mr. Bird started us out with group songing, and then Mr. Rog Slated spoke to us. Bernie Haan and Mr. Senti were our MC's for the day, and Larry De Wit, our mascot. Billboards were judged, skits were given, and the royalty were announced. So, even though things were mixed up, we still had a great day.

Mr. Slater delivered our chapel message.

Mr. Bird led us in group singing.

"Just LOOK at those girls turning green!"

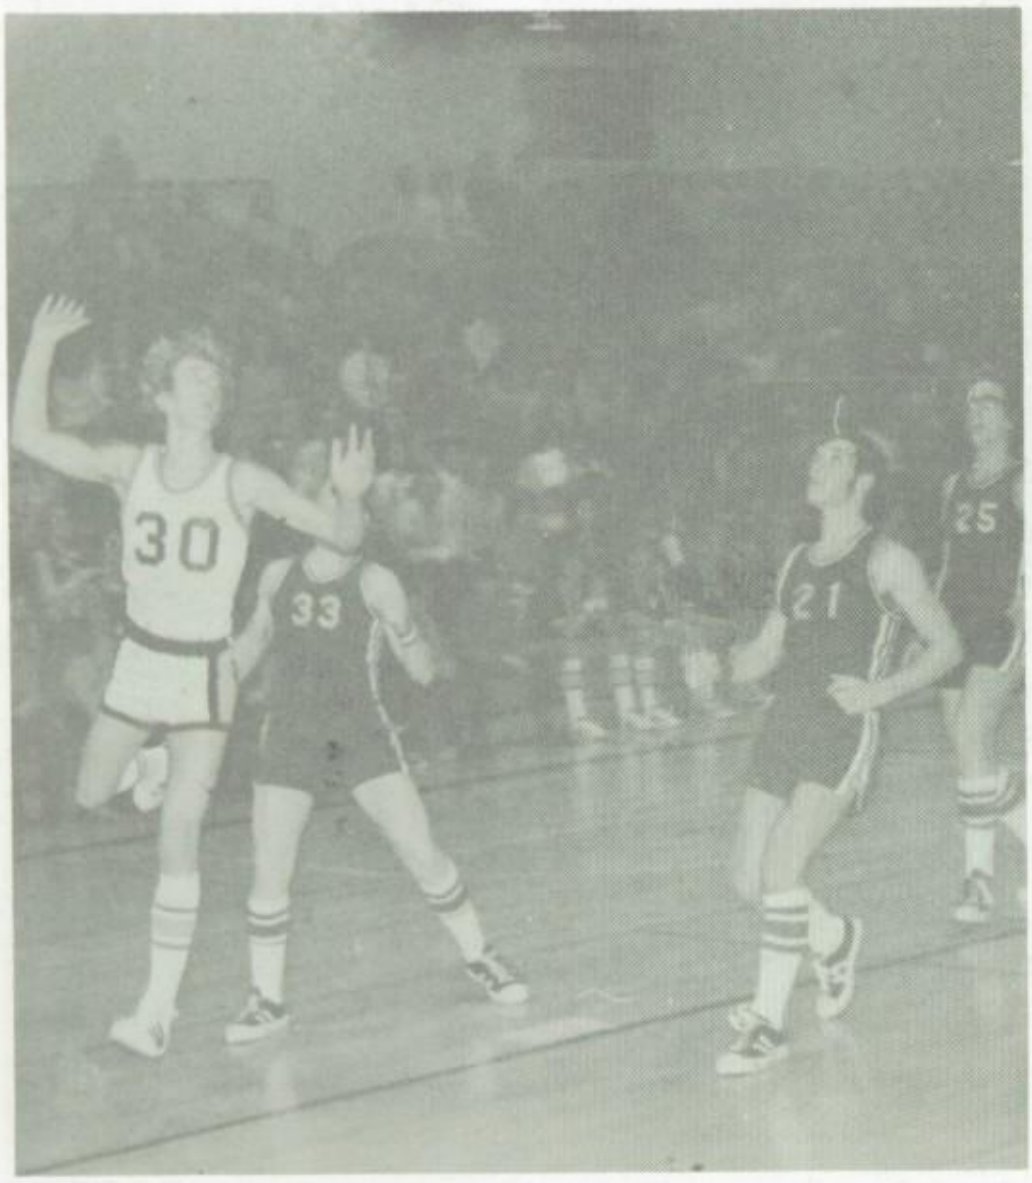
Modestly, Kenny prepares for bedtime...

They're not always like this...they're paying a tribute to the Alumni cheerleaders!

And the Day Ended With a Win and a Loss.

Homecoming day was ended with two very exciting basketball games at Dordt. This year something new was added. The girls also played a basketball game on homecoming night. They played very well, but were defeated 54-46. Immediately after the girls' game, the Indians charged through the tepee and onto the floor looking great! They defeated Remsen 67-36.

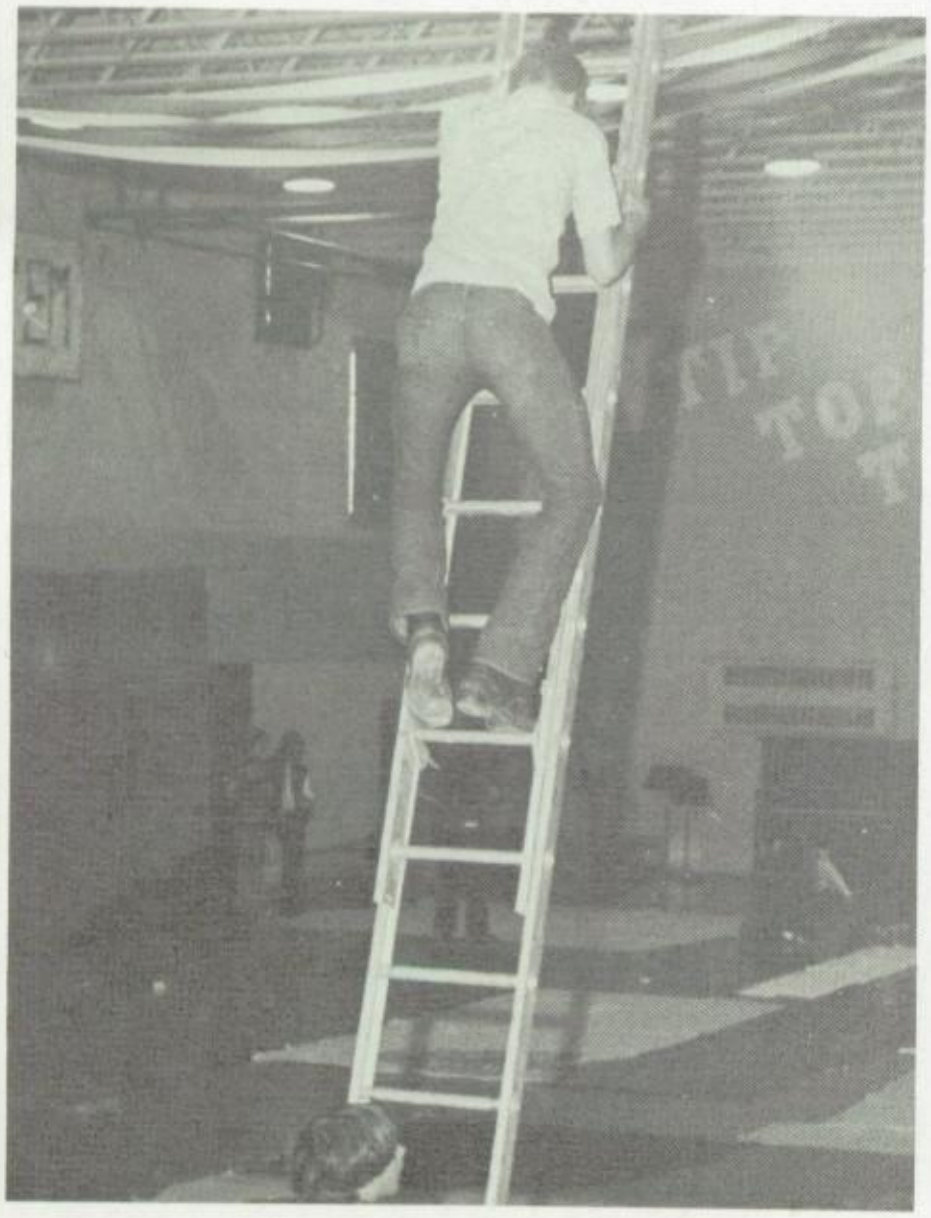
Drill Team performed between the games.



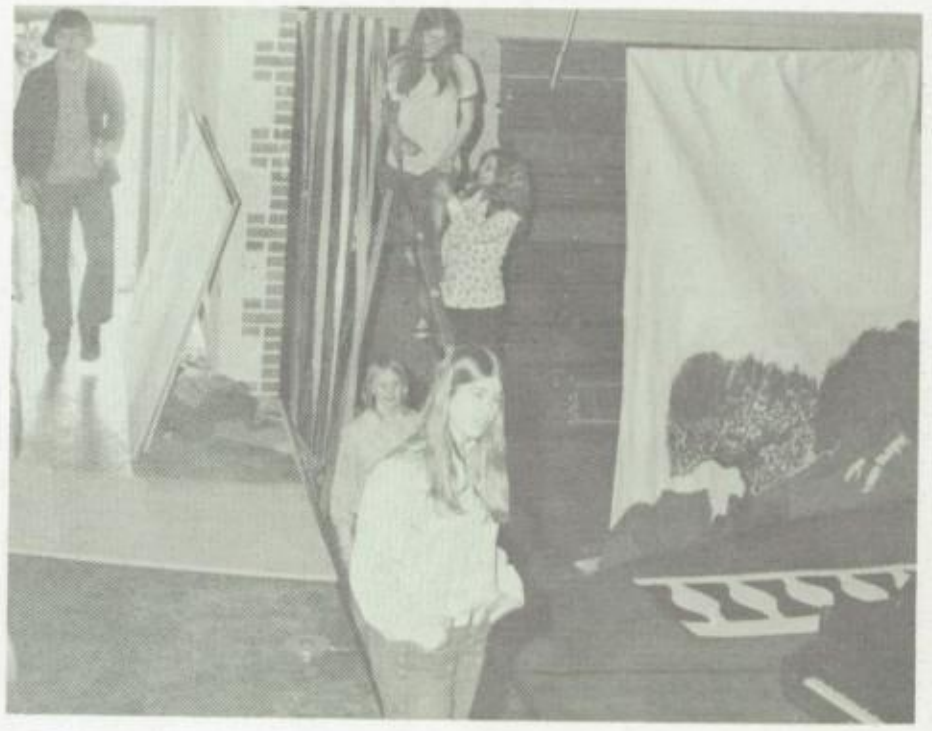
Noreen K. helped lead the cheering.

Galen's jump shots helped us defeat the Hawks.

Juniors Work Hard to Prepare . . .



Careful, now!



Can't be THAT bad, Jerri.

So this is how the walls started, huh?

These energenic girls are making favors.

Who are you dreaming about, Cheryl?

"A Time for Us"

The annual Jr.-Sr. banquet was held April 6, in Western's gym. Many hours were spent working to achieve the right setting and atmosphere for this memorable evening. Kay Van't Hul and Bernie Haan were there to cheer those who weren't already glowing with excitement. Even though they were nervous, the waiters and waitresses managed to serve everyone in a short time. After supper, The Sonshine Company gave a short program. "A Time For Us" was the theme chosen. Although it may have suggested a secular attitude, the students and faculty were pleased to be able to use the time given to them by God, in fellowship with others.

Seniors Have a Great Time at Minneapolis

The kids take a breather-and try to wake up- at the waterfalls.

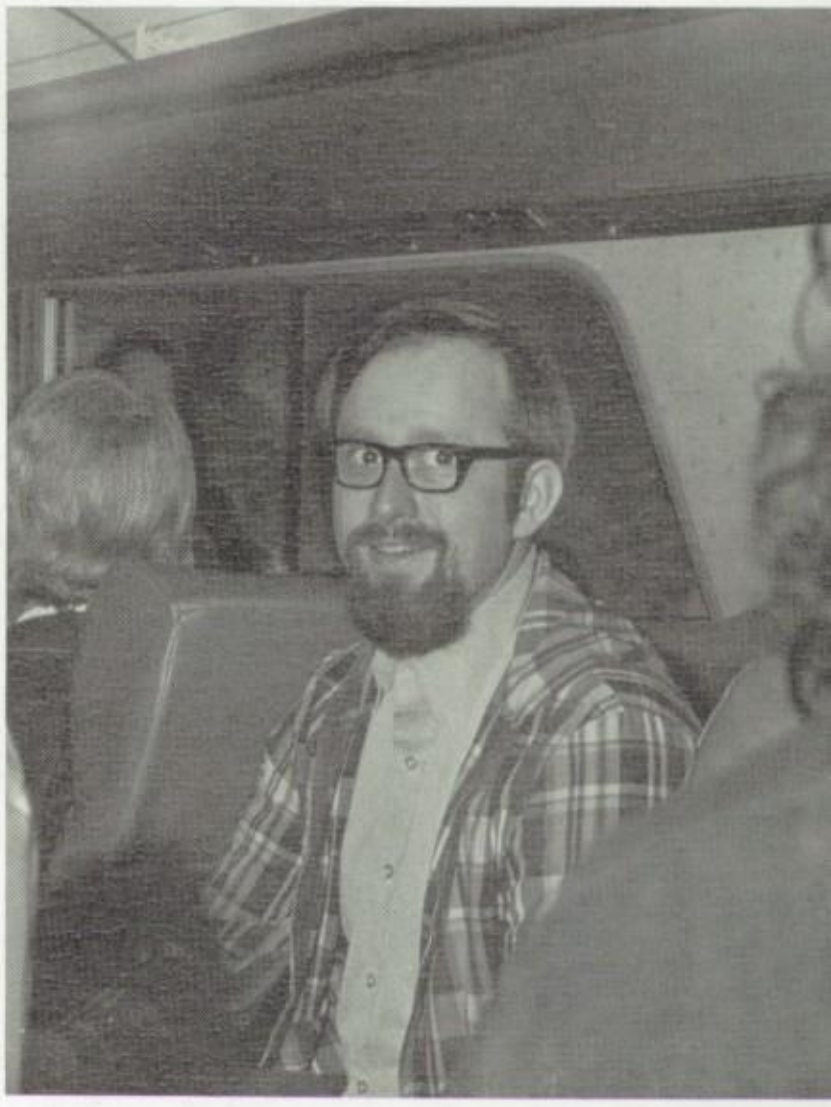
One hundred and twelve sleepy-eyed kids stumbled into the cafe at 5:45 a.m. on May 11. But once on the road, everyone began waking up.

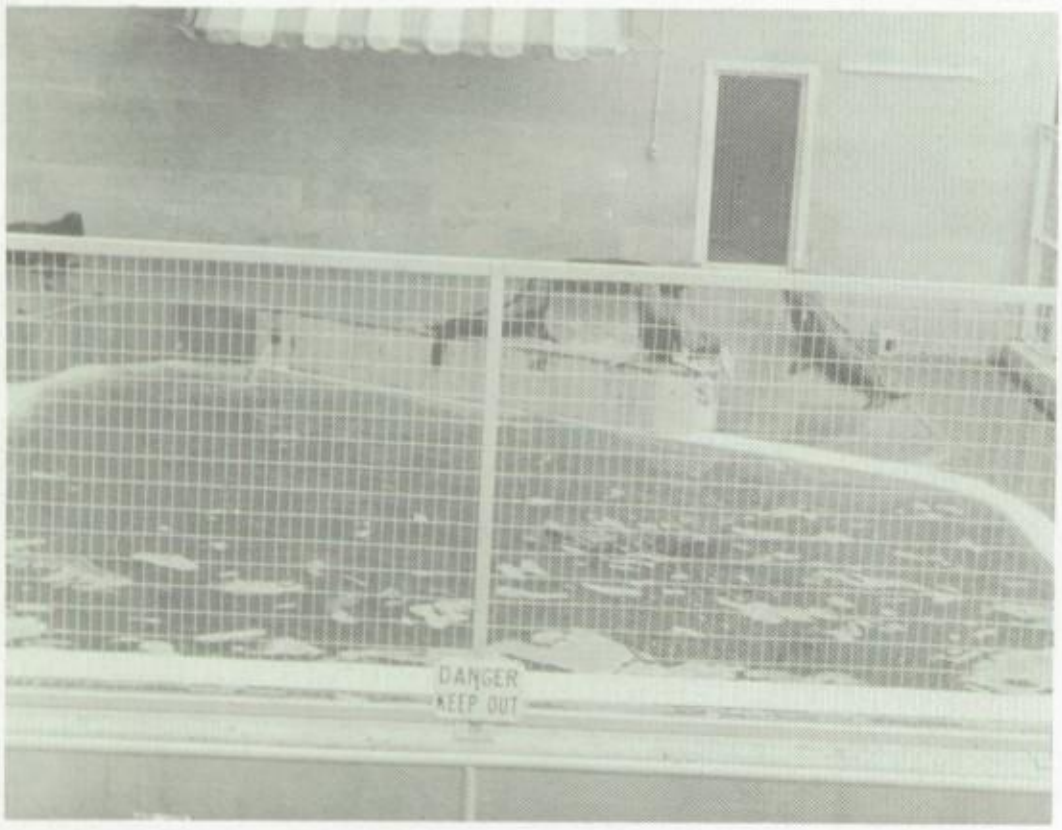
The day included visits to the Minneapolis Airport, a shopping center, and Como Park. The final treat was seeing a movie in the cinnema.

After two hours of riding they stopped for a late snack and at 2:00 a.m. were returned from an exhausting, but fun-filled day.

Wouldn't you know it-the Birds among the flowers.

Water rushing over the rocks at Minnehaha Falls.





The seals really put on a show for those interested.

Graduation:

Our Moment of Fulfillment

Everyone waits in silence and thinks about the four years behind them.

ACADEMICS

OUR MOMENT OF LEARNING

"A moment to stop...
and watch a sunbeam dance across your desk to think long, long thoughts and sigh at the years to come."

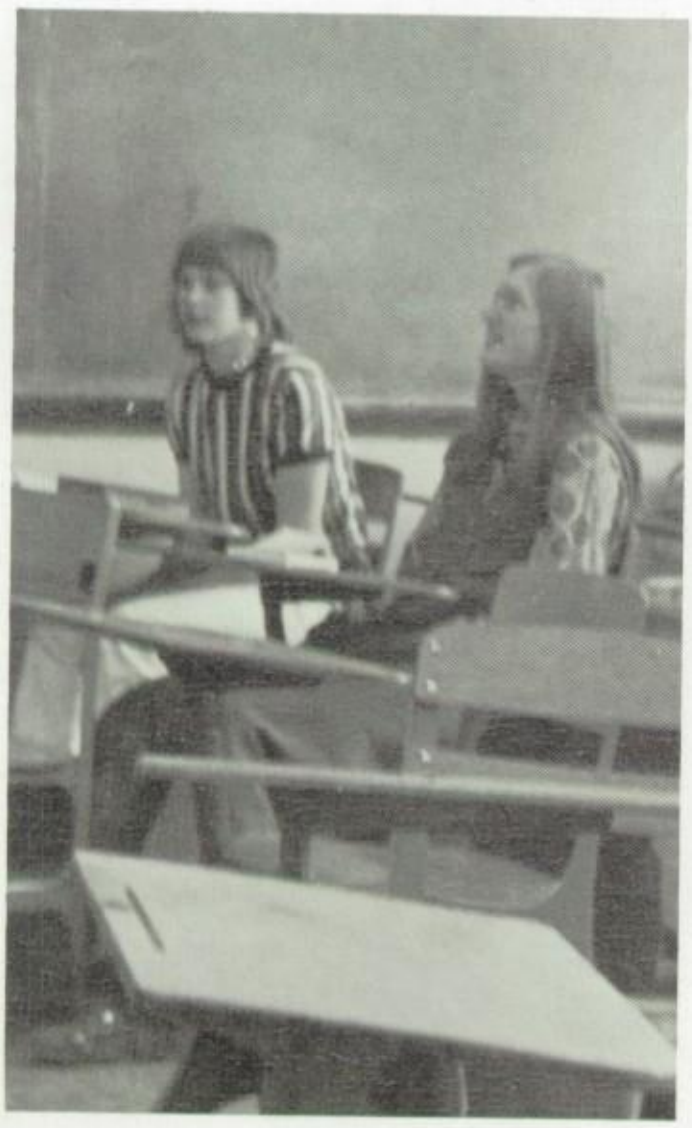
This year Mr. Kuiper was added to our Bible department. He taught first and second year Bible while Mr. Feenstra took over third and fourth year.

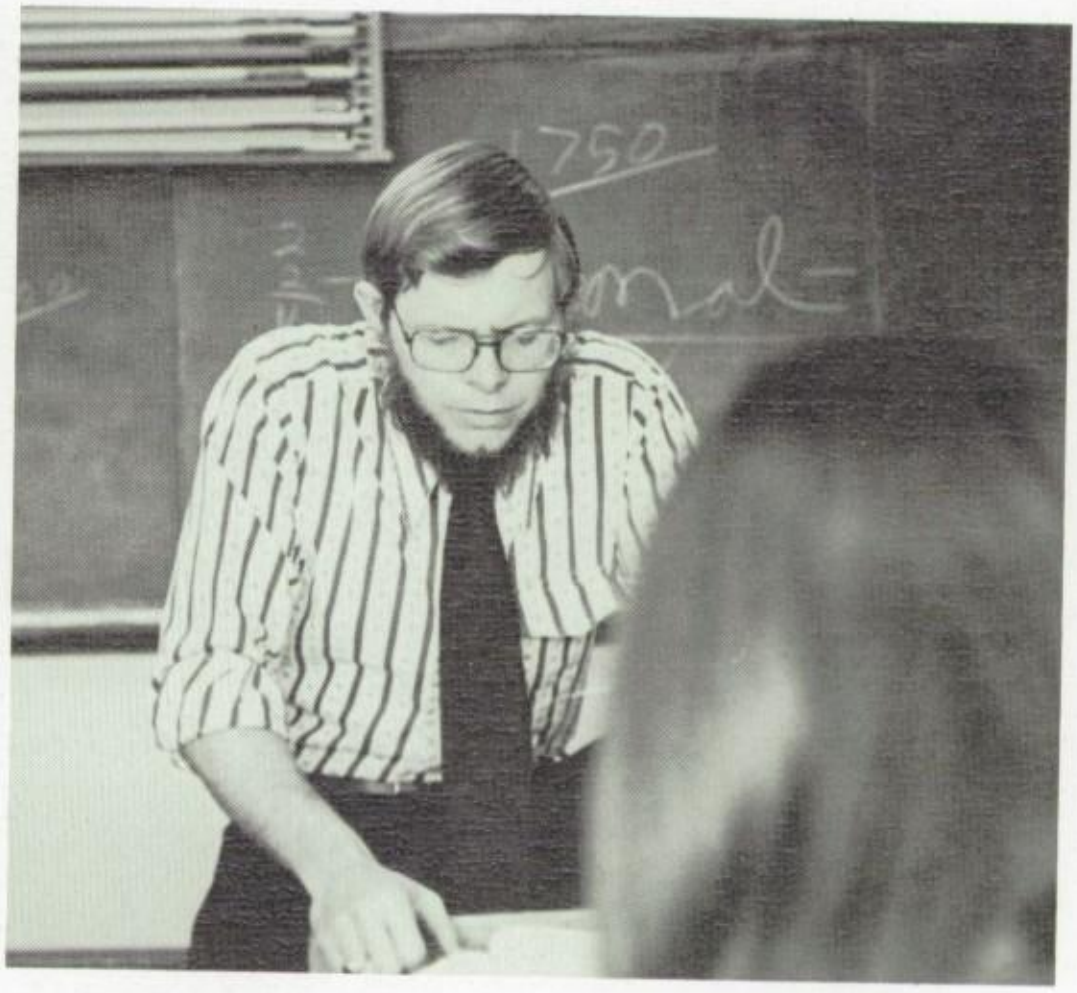
Bible is one of the most important things at Western. It relates not only to other subjects, but many times to our personal lives. Bible expands our outlook of the world and prepares us for a bright future, not alone, but with God.

In Freshman Bible, you learn a lot of facts about our ancestry.

Bible: Relevant to Everything



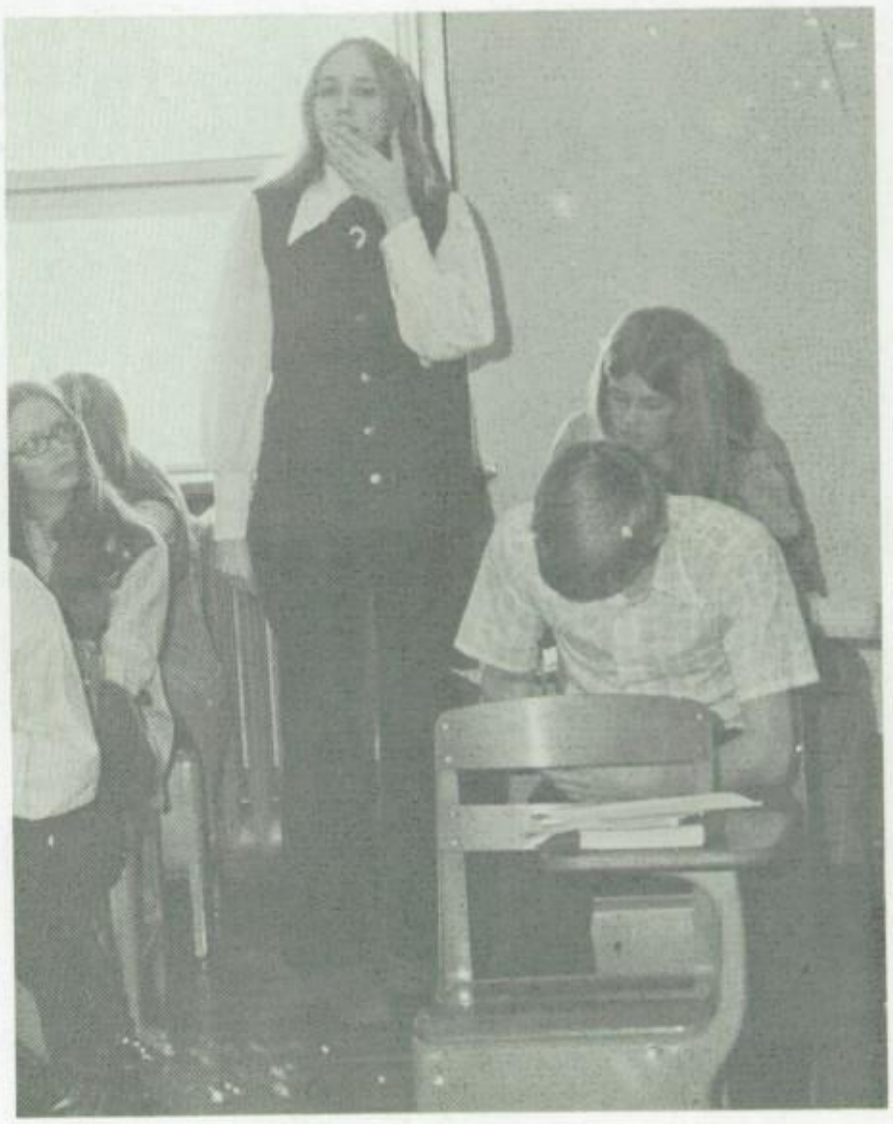
Sandi and Gayla NEVER goof around in Bible, do they?



Mr. Feenstra puzzles the class and himself with one of his quests.

This Year German Meant "Auf Wiedersehen" to Mrs. De Jong.

Proudly, Mrs. D. J. displays her farewell cake.



Each year finds new students learning the basics of the German language. German students learn to speak the language while studying the fundamentals of German grammar.

At the beginning of the second semester, Mrs. De Jong was replaced by Mrs. Nikkel. On Mrs. De Jong's last day, each of her German classes gave her a farewell party.

It looks like everyone is enjoying this part of the farewell party.

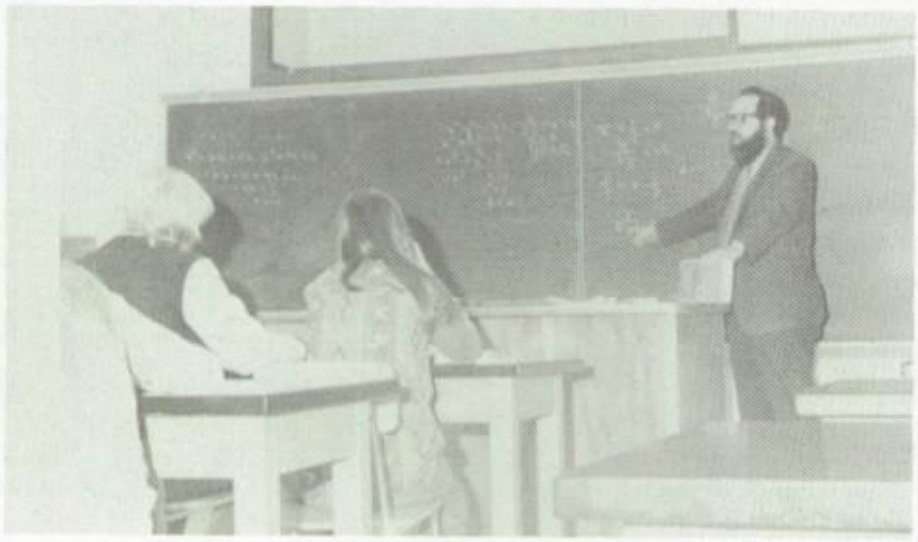
Math—a Challenge for Everyone

The Math Department offers many different courses. These are Elementary Algebra I and II, Geometry, and Senior Math.

Elementary I and II, and Algebra I and II introduce the students to integers, positive and negative numbers, and sets. As their understanding increased they soon found themselves overcoming equations which they once struggled with.

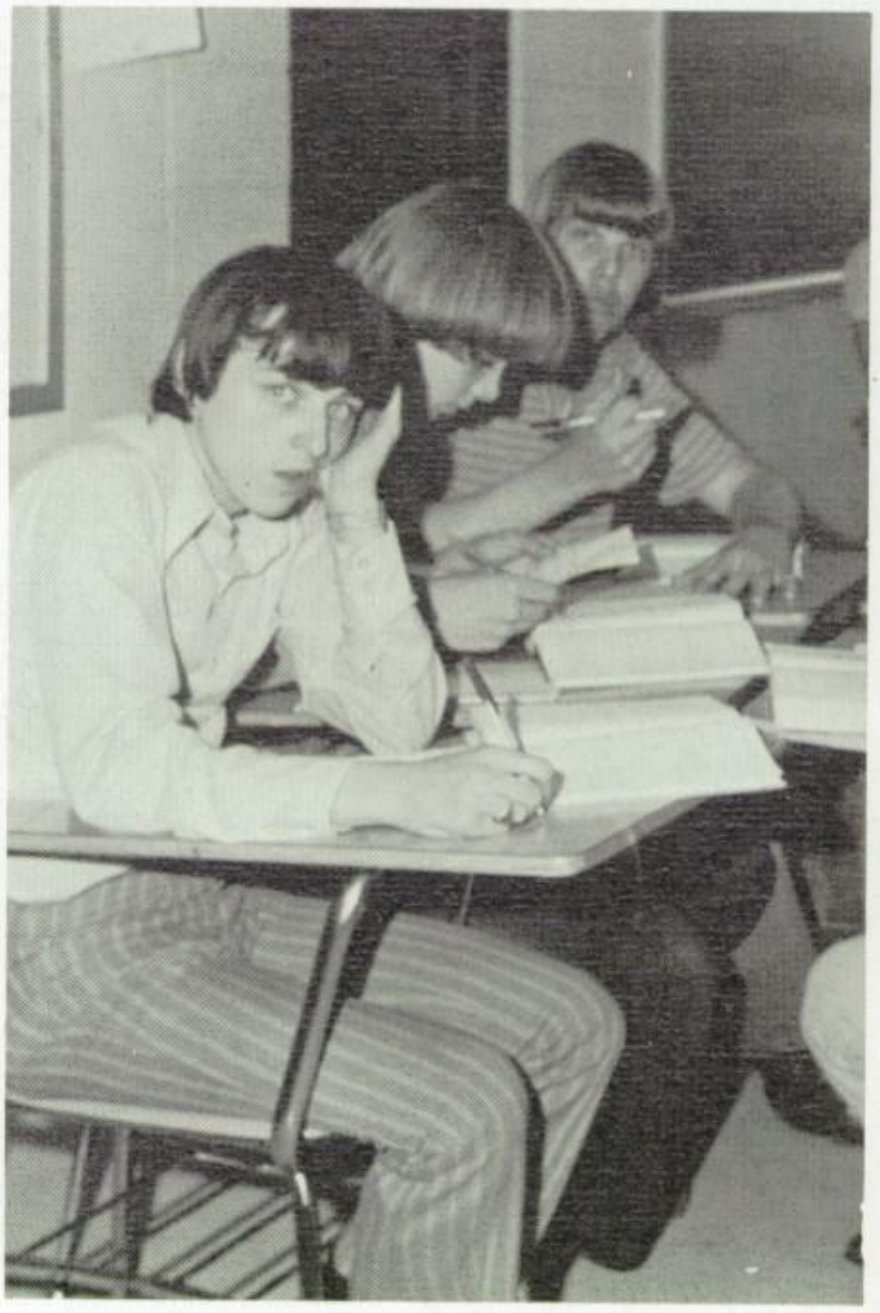
By using definitions as foundation stones, and by adding the building blocks of theorems and postulates, the students ended the year with a complete and workable building or system called Geometry.

Mr. Ribbens helps (?) his students.



Don't get shook, it's simple!

You won't get done THAT way, guys.

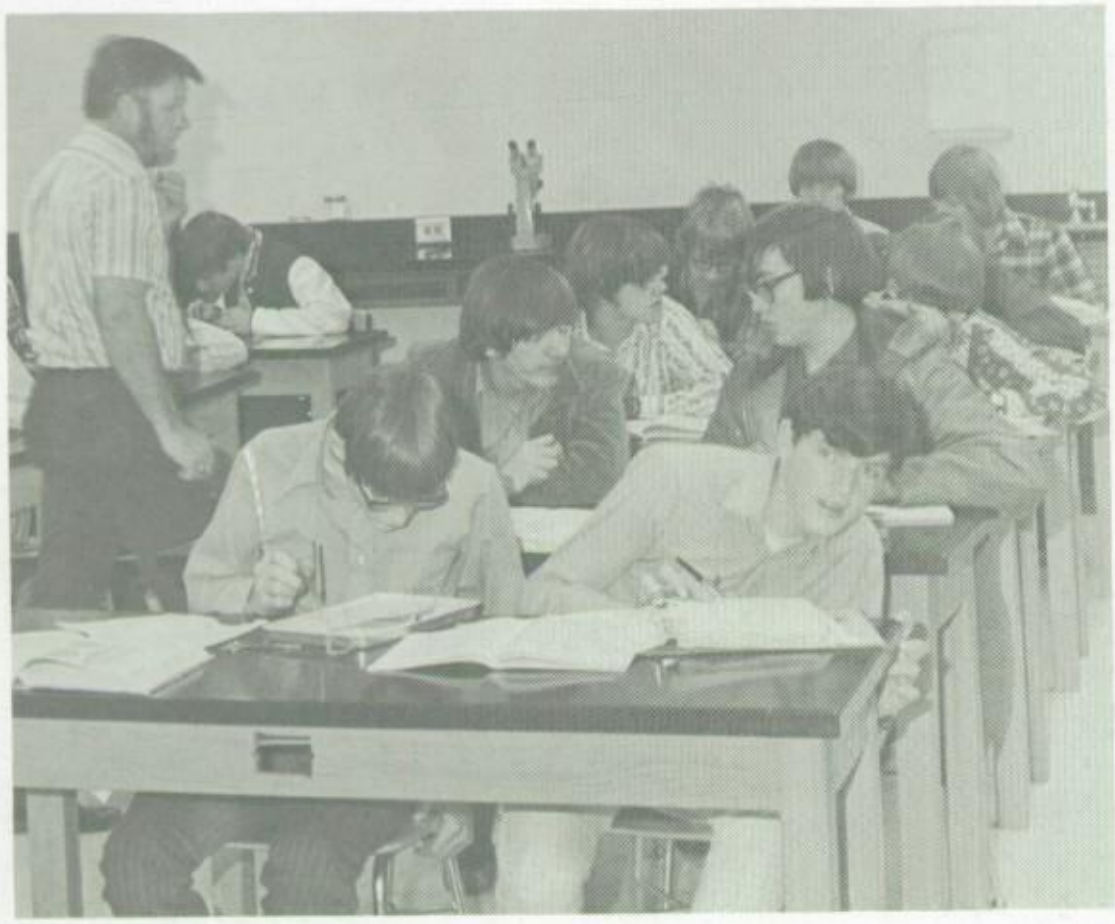


Science—a Study of Our World.

Mr. Bakker prepares for class.

Western's Science Department offers Physical Science to Freshmen, Biology to Sophomores, Chemistry and Physics to Juniors and Seniors.

Science reflects the order of God's Creation. We learn to respect and appreciate the different aspects of nature. The students experience a feeling of awe for the Creator and Creation.



Disecting a worm? Oh yummy!

If this tips, Mr. Bakker will kill me!

Mr. Vis points out a very important fact.

Social Studies -Past, Present and Future.

The Social Studies program gives us prospective into what man faces in today's society. By looking into the past of the world we can more more appreciate the freedoms we have. The Social Studies helps us understand people better.

Contemporary History doesn't seem too boring!

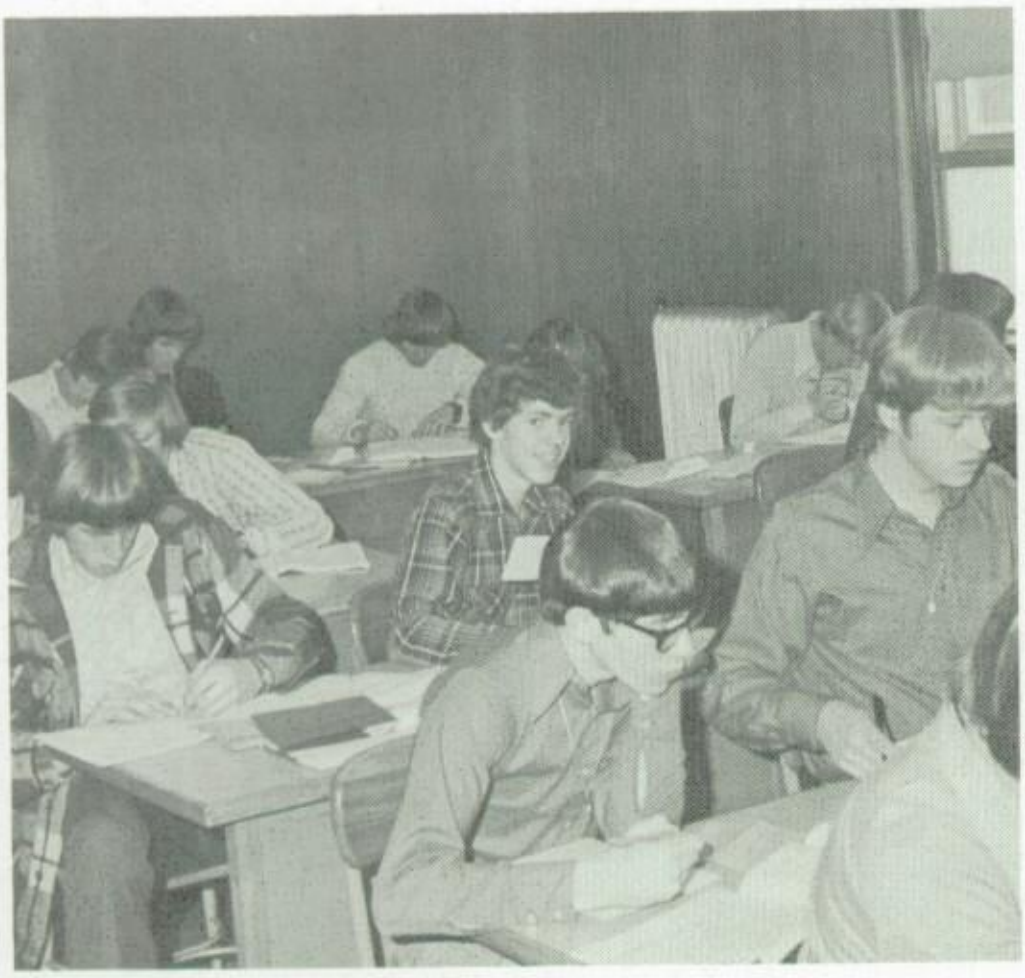
How come you can never catch any Junior working?

Business Is Important in Career Planning.

Japenese? No, its Mr. Kooiman's Shorthand class!

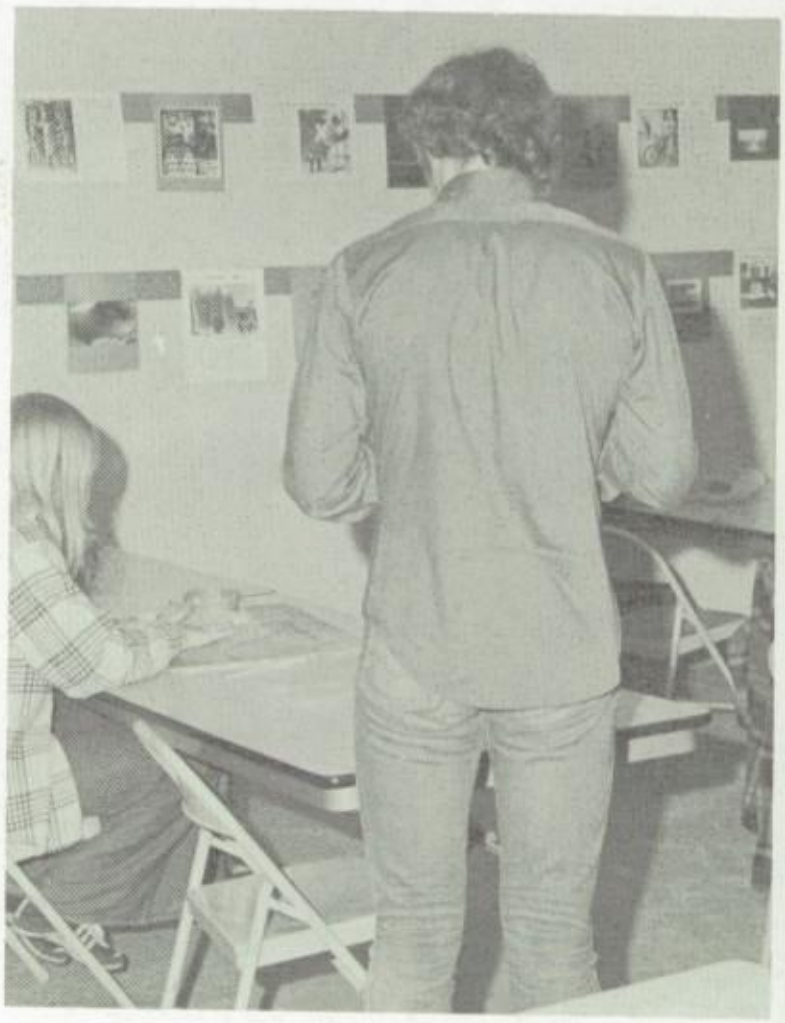
The Business Department at Western includes Typing, Shorthand, Bookkeeping, Office Practice, and General Business. It prepares some of us for the careers we have chosen, teaching that business, too, is under God's rule.

Karen likes typing so well, she can't quit!(?)



Hard working students...Even Wes?

This is a display of some of the pottery that kids made.



Art—Describing a Part of You

This display shows the varied interests of kids.

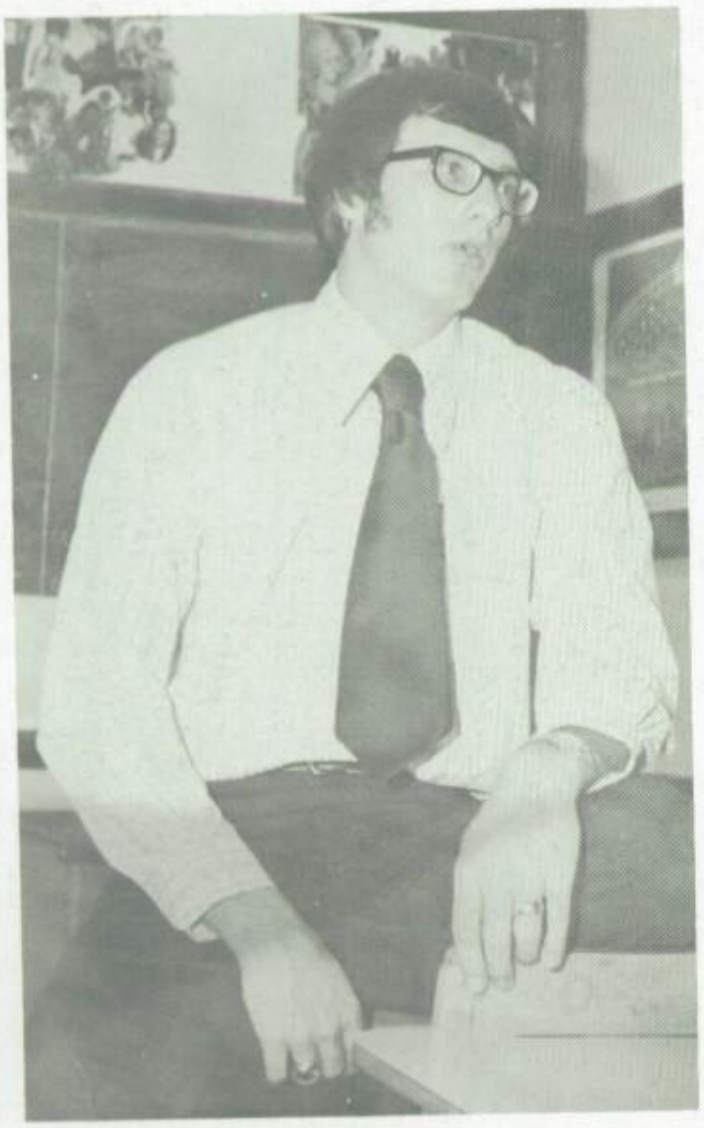
Art gives everyone a chance to bring out a little bit of themselves. Through drawing, painting, carving, cutting, and glueing, a part of you becomes known, possibly for the first time. Art gives you a chance to show your Christian feelings towards things, and a chance to develop a God-given talent. Its something that is a part of everyone, but often hidden by many. Though lots of us feel we don't have any artistic ability, we should give Mr. De Jong some time to show us how much we really can do.

Some of Western's English courses are Literary Experience, Thematic Literature, Modern Communications, and American and British Writers.

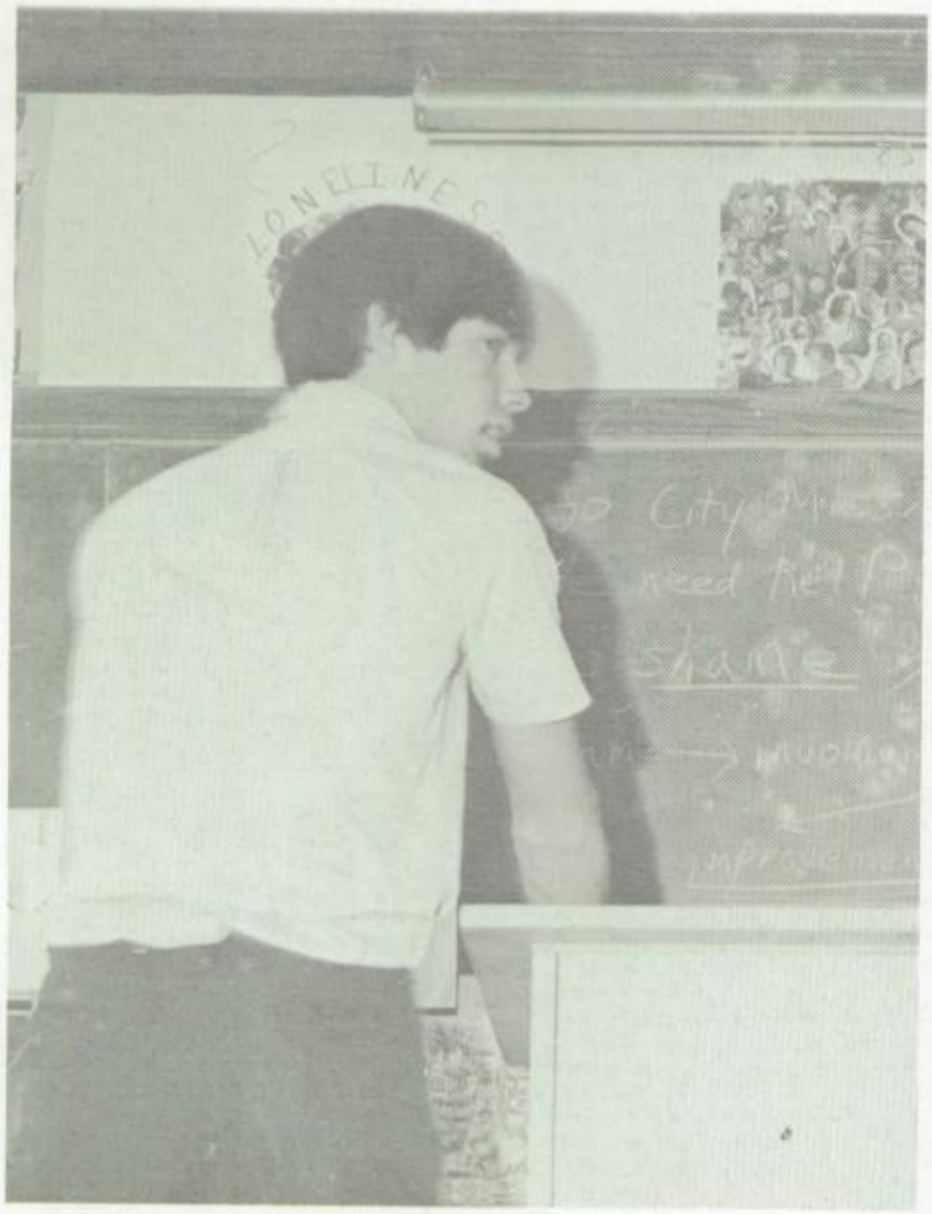
These courses stress the student's creative ability, through extensive writing of short stories, essays, term papers and poetry.

English Has Something for Everyone

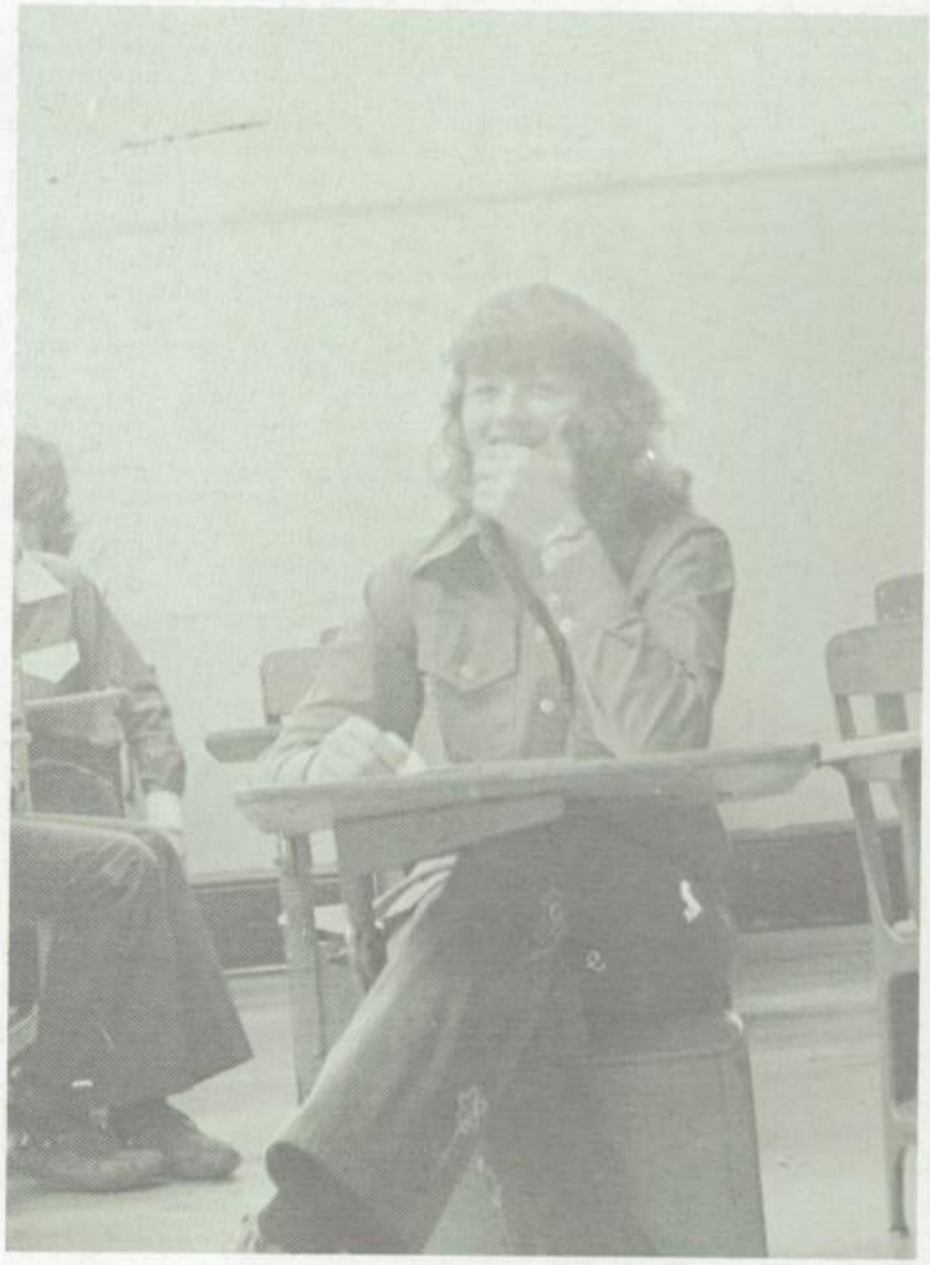
Reading seems to interest almost everyone.



"All right, who threw that?"



"Need a little help, Terry?"

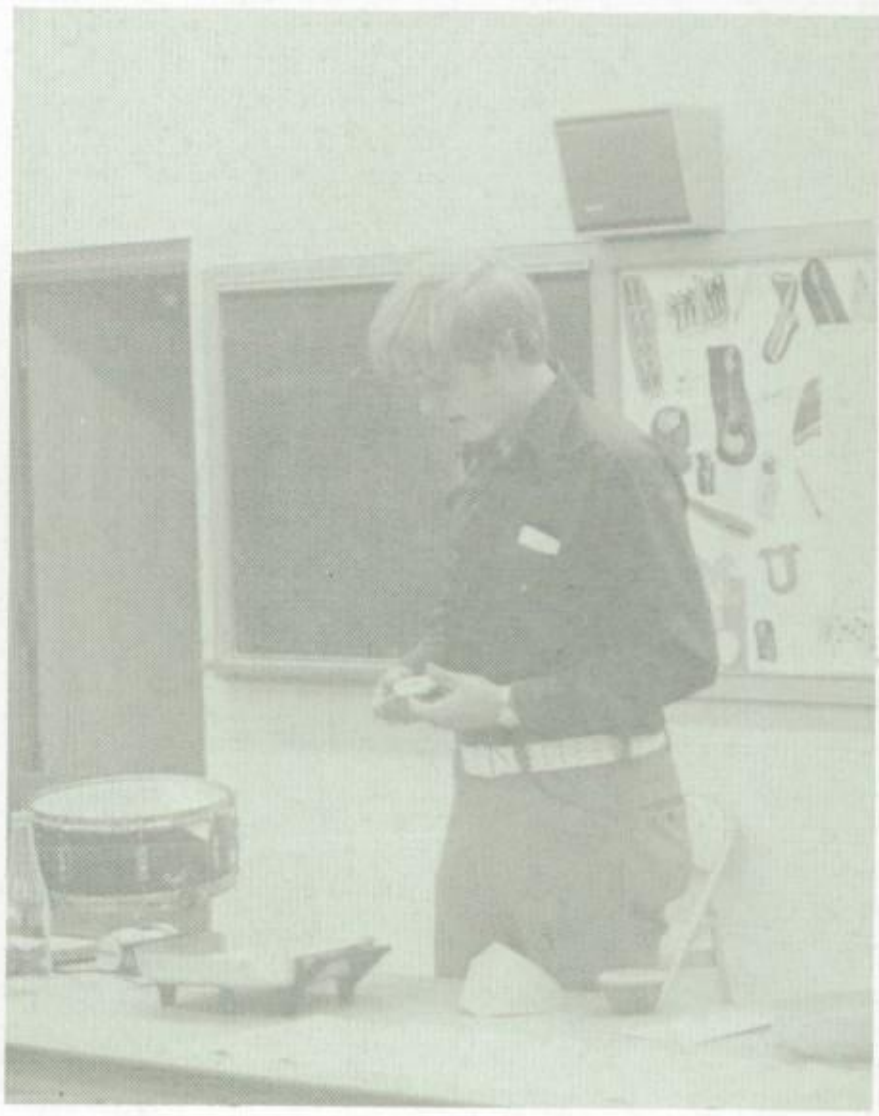


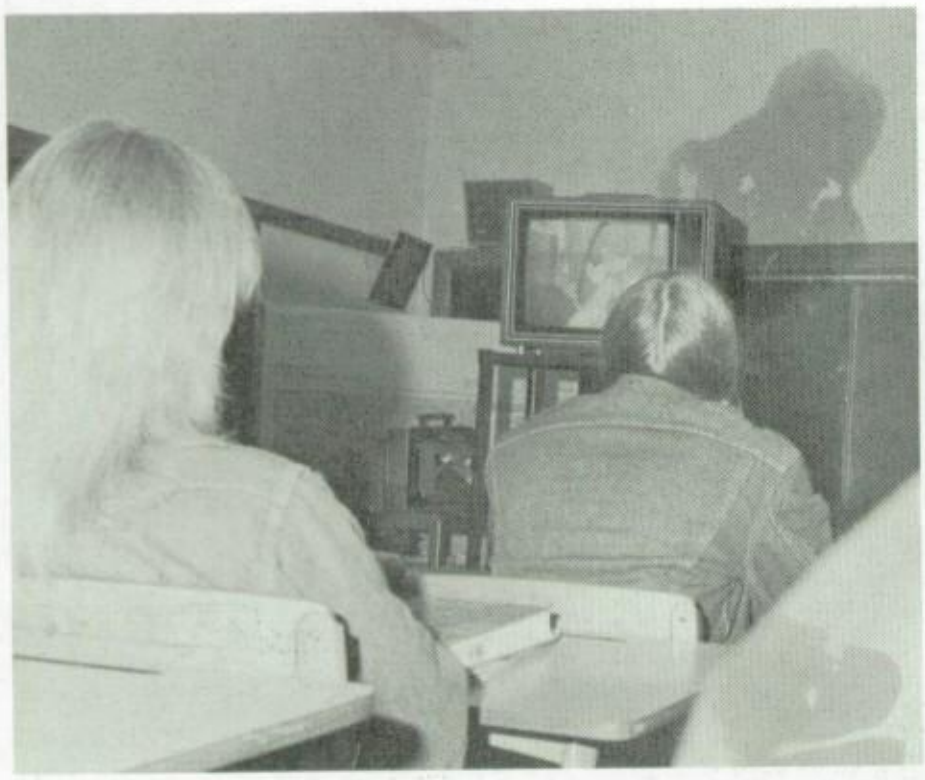
"What's so funny, Mary?"

Speech

Perhaps the greatest advantage of the Speech course is the self-confidence gained. Articulation and expression in one's speech are also valuable in one's later life.

Ken demonstrates... SOMETHING or other!





"The Pink Panther", in Soc class?

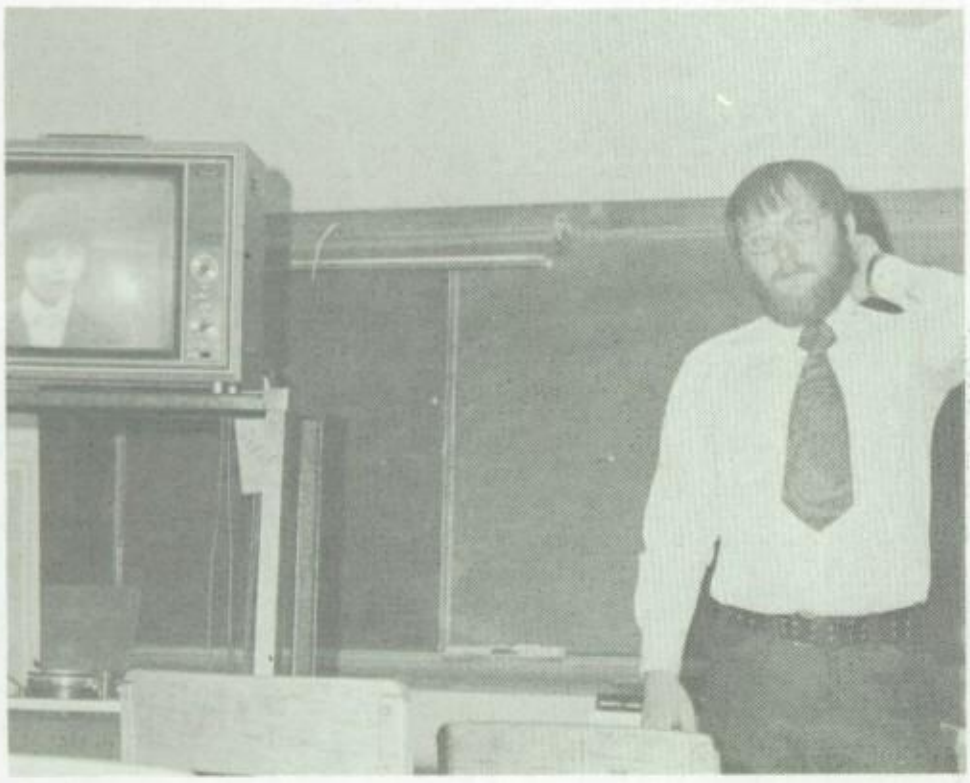
Sociology—

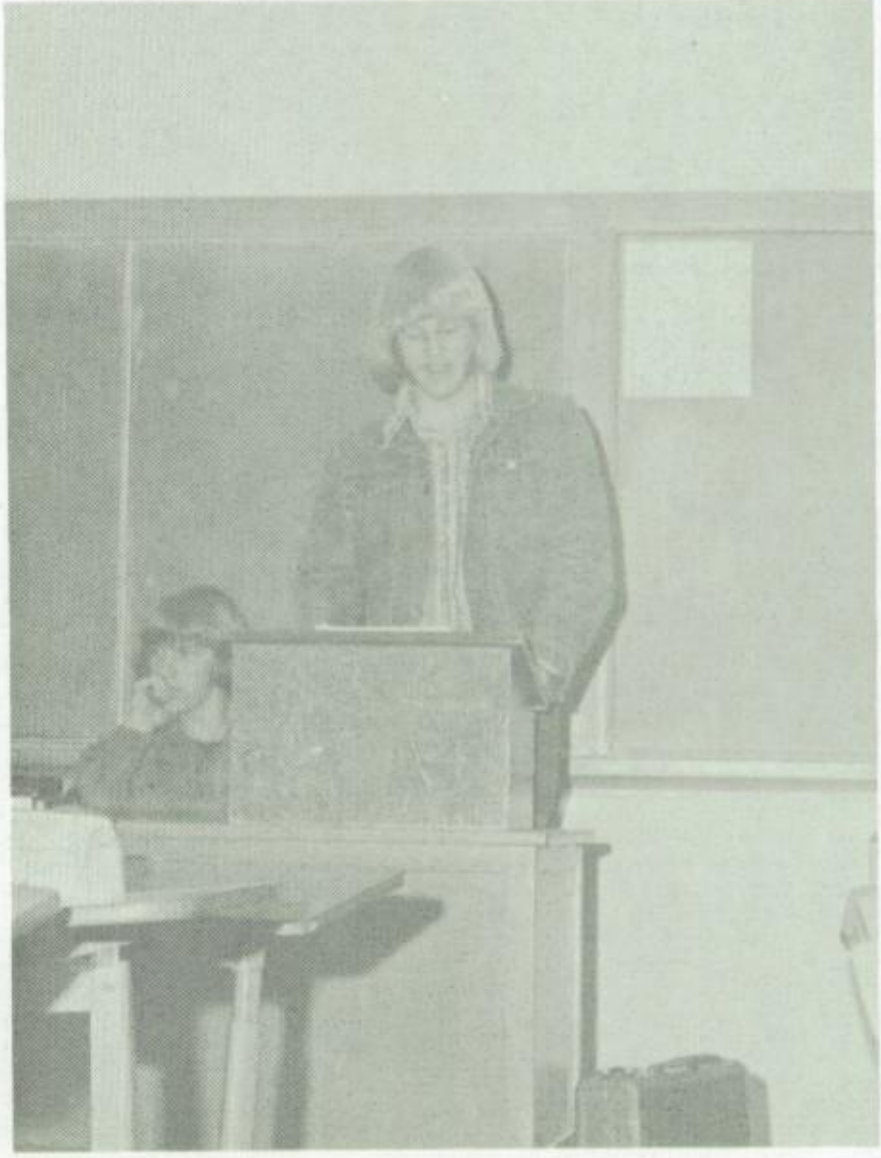
Our World and Its Problems

Sociology is a very interesting and informative subject. Marriage and the family is studied, along with different aspects of getting along with others today. Social problems such as drugs, alcohol, VD, population growth, and religious differences are studied, and discussions are held on kid's attitudes toward them. Sociology is really very important for us as Christians because only if we know what is going on in our world can we help solve our problems.

Loren leads a discussion on TV violence.

Can't figure out where that camera came from, huh?





"Everybody in Their Exercise Positions!"

In physical education we grow both as individuals and together as a team. Realizing the greatness of our bodies helps us to see the majesty of our perfect God. We learn the importance of keeping our bodies fit physically, mentally, socially, emotionally, and above all, spiritually.

Miss V. D. H. taught us rythmics.

Come on, girls-this isn't so hard!

A little battle ball is really fun!

GUIDANCE COUNSELOR

Mr. Vander Ark is a friend to all. He's expecially important to the Seniors, helping them make some of the most important decisions of their lives. He's always ready to listen to everyone's problems and offer advice. This year he also worked with the Chapel Committee to help plan the chapel, His Christian character is greatly admired by all.

There are several people each year who come from Dordt to practice teach at Western. This year's group was a really great bunch. They helped out in several different subjects and learned a lot from the kids (we hope).

Though we don't realize it there is a lot of work put into the repair and upkeep of our busses. Ed does this job, and it certainly must be frustrating! But Ed goes about his work, doing his best to keep up.

Then, of course, in the habit of breaking the busses, are the drivers. Actually, they're pretty good guys, and do all they can to get us all to school. But, they do have their problems. Denny's clutch suddenly went out, and Alan seems to like to run into things, but, they try hard!

Chapel Committee just began this year. Although the six girls were told they only were to schedule chapels, it turned out to involve a lot more. The girls learned how much goes into arranging chapel. Sometimes wires were crossed and either two speakers would show up, or else none would come at all. But, all in all, the girls had a lot of fun and chapels went quite smoothly.

The Prince and the Pauper is a light-hearted play for children of all ages. It is written by Anne Coulter Martens and Adapted from the book by Mark Twain.

The story is about two young men, ages 12, who very much enjoy being someone else. Tom Canty is the pauper who would love to be a Prince. Prince Edward, who is tired of all the restrictions set upon royalty, would like to be a pauper for a while. So Tom and Edward change clothing, just for a minute. But the minute turns out to be a little longer than a minute. The real Prince dressed like a pauper is thrown out of the palace. The real pauper, Tom, is now treated like a prince. Nothing Tom can say will convince the court that he isn't the lawful prince and heir to the throne and poor Prince Edward finds that being a pauper is a pretty rough life.

Poor Tom and Edward have many difficulties until they manage to exchange roles once again and become the REAL Tom and the REAL Prince Edward. Each boy comes away from the incident a much better person having lived for a while in someone else's shoes.

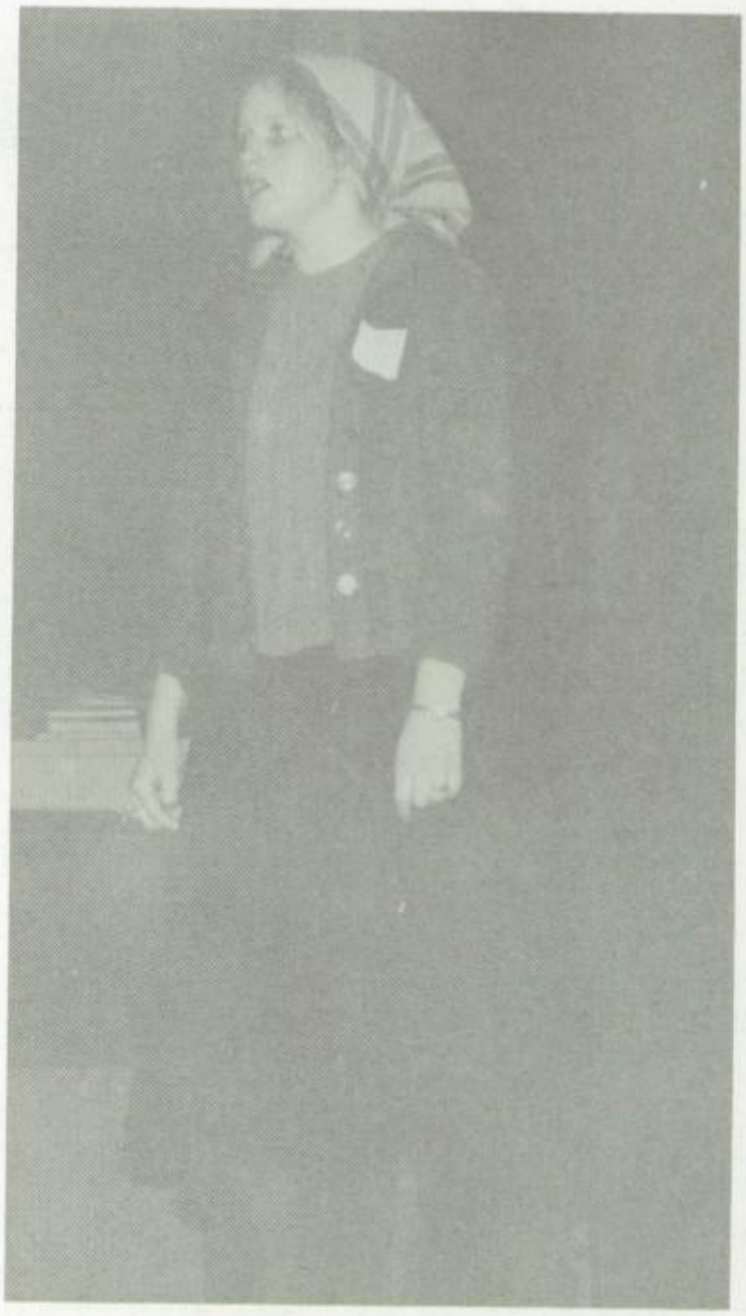
The family quarrels over what should be done next.

Terezin was a fortress built by Emperor Joseph II of Austria. During W.W. II, it was used as a ghetto for over 15,000 Jewish children. It became a stopping off place for thousands on their way to the gas chambers at Auschwitzz.

When Terezin was liberated in May of 1945, only about 100 children of the 15,000 were alive to return to what was left of their lives. Raja Englanderova was one of those children who survived. She is about 40 years old now, and is looking back on her life. All her friends are dead, but she remembers them very clearly. Four children in the play bring out that "war is hell" and that they suffer the most. The cast did a really great job of showing the pain and torture innocent children suffered during W. W. II

A routine rehearsal.



Raja speaks of her past, and her future.

Drill Team & Gymnastics

Drill Team members found out that it takes hours of practice for good results. But the practices on Saturdays or 7:00 in the morning paid off. Besides, who but drill team can make hearts, 73's, peace signs, and smiley faces?

Political Science

Involvement is the key in Political Science Club. This year's highlights consisted of two major things. At the beginning of the year, the Political Rally was part of the big scene. Then there was the trip to Des Moines. Thanks to the Political Science Club, this year the whole school was involved in the area of politics at one time.

Debate

Self expression-that's what Debate is all about. You've got to learn to argue both ways no matter what you belive to be right. The main interest of this year's topic dealt with the issue of Federal aid for public schools. Involvement in Debate shows that it is an experience in learning.

Macrame, Knitting and Crocheting Clubs

Macrame', Knitting, and Crocheting Clubs were settings for a lot of fun and hard work. About forty girls met during activity period while Mrs. Kempers patiently taught the basic stitches and knots. The girls worked on different projects like purses, belts, afghans, and pillows.

Everyone enjoyed the weeks of learning and found it very useful and entertaining. The girls learned how important it is to help each other and accept another's help.

The girls' team really worked hard this year, ending the season with a 11-10 record. Many strenuous hours of practice proved their ability, increased their self-confidence, matured their sportsmanship, and showed them that there is no "I" in "team". Next year may be even better!

Cross Country Ranks in State This Year

Cross country had a terrific season this year. The Varsity team was undefeated in dual meets, and won four invitationals. The Junior Varsity ran about the same record, being victor in three invitationals. The high point of the season came when we placed SECOND in STATE in both the one mile and two mile runs!

Mr. Altena commented that the spirit of the guys was really good. A lot of sweat and guts goes into cross country, so lets be proud of our team, and, who knows?...Maybe next year we'll be FIRST!

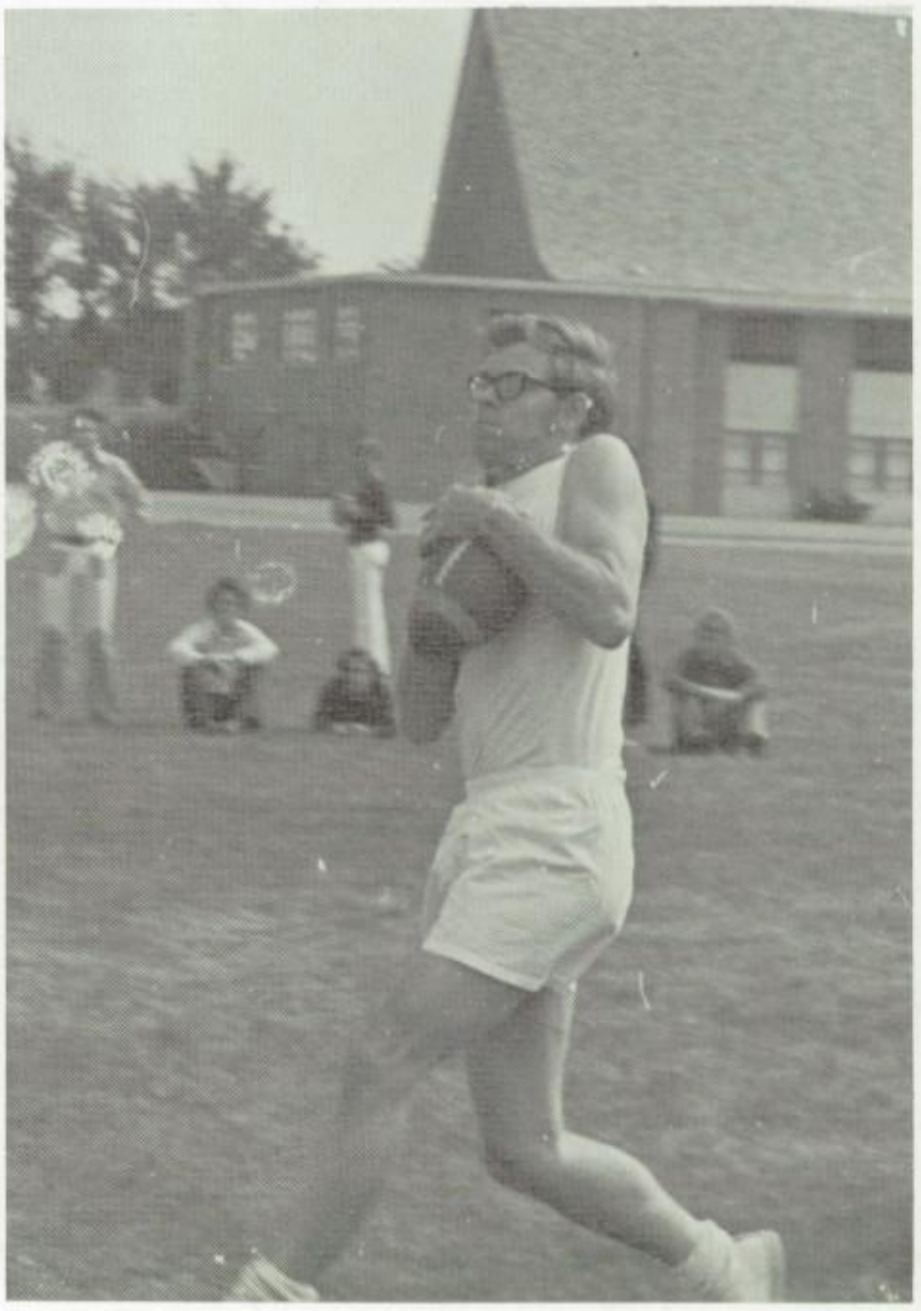
INTRAMURAL TEAM: Dennis Vis, Dan Dykstra, Dave Draayer, Ron Vander Veen, John Postma, Tim De Stigter, Bob Oldenkamp, Mike Alons, Dean Oostra, Marv Kempema.

Intramurals were really a success this year. There was a lot of participation, and a lot of good sportsmanship shown. The season ended with the Sophomores defeating the Freshmen, and the Seniors defeating the Juniors. The season was ended with a large track meet, in which the Sophomores came up with the most points. Also there was a last tug-of-war between the classes in which the Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors all had one win. Next year, there are lots of good plans to make the year an even better intramural year.

One of the entries in the intramural track meet.

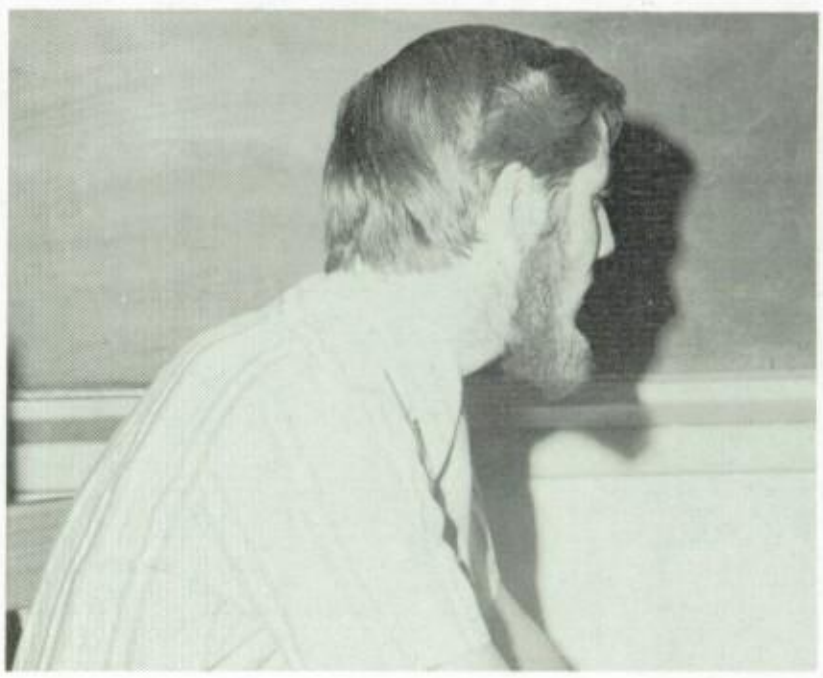
Hang onto it, Mr. Feenstra!!!



And Then There's the Teachers' Lives . . .

As the game begins...

What's in the corner, Mr. Vis?



Our faculty was kept busy this year. At the Penny Fair all of them had their turn at the dunking machine. And kids sure got revenge!

At Homecoming they displayed their skill in the Faculty skit. It was one of the better skits of the day.

In the game against the KISD "Good Guys", each teacher who played tried to show some skill in basketball. And though they lost, everyone had a lot of fun.

"Sherlock Holmes, here..."

Anyone who would have visited school in the second week of February might have wondered if he needed Bob Newhart, the expert psychiatrist. After an array of hats and lollipops on Monday, there was a hint of the chivalry stored in Western's halls...or under the chair...or in the lockers...And, on thursday Western's halls looked like a refuge for bums. Friday everyone regained their sanity and the day went as usual.

Freshmen—Class of '76

Sponsors: Mr. Schelhaas and Mr. Scholten.

Every year at Western there is a new bunch of Freshmen. To the upperclassmen we are considered "dumb freshies", who won't be late, and take occassional long shower visits, with a little persuasion. To us, being Freshies is making new friends, both boys and girls...choir...selling candles...and having lockers in the Science edition. We are most thankful to be in Western to learn more about God in this year, and the three years ahead of us.

Sophomores—Class of '75

Sponsors: Mr. Vis and Mr. Kooiman.

One hundred thirty-seven students of fifteen and sixteen year olds made up the Sophomore class this year. Another year of Western Christian-a year full of activities... walking throughout the halls... going to class... waiting and talking in the lunch line... playing in intramurals... filing to chapel... running to catch the bus... getting up nerve to ask out a certain person... going to basketball games and plays and concerts... each week ushered in its own special events. Each Sophomore was individual in his or her actions, words, and thoughts, yet throughout the whole year, each one was dependent on God for help and guidance-moment by moment.

Sophomores play in a rough game of soccer.

Juniors—Class of '74

We as the Junior Class of '74 have returned to Western from last year's "Silly Sophs" to this year's "Jolly Juniors".

We have many happy memories of our Junior year ... being upperclassmen... Junior class rings... beating battle cry (finally!)... smallest class... THE BANQUET.

Each day held its moments of awareness, achievements, and progress. But now is the past, only to be remembered by our happy, long-lasting memories.

Today is our moment, and we must live each day to its fullest, always to the honor and glory of God, for today will soon be the memories of our Senior year.

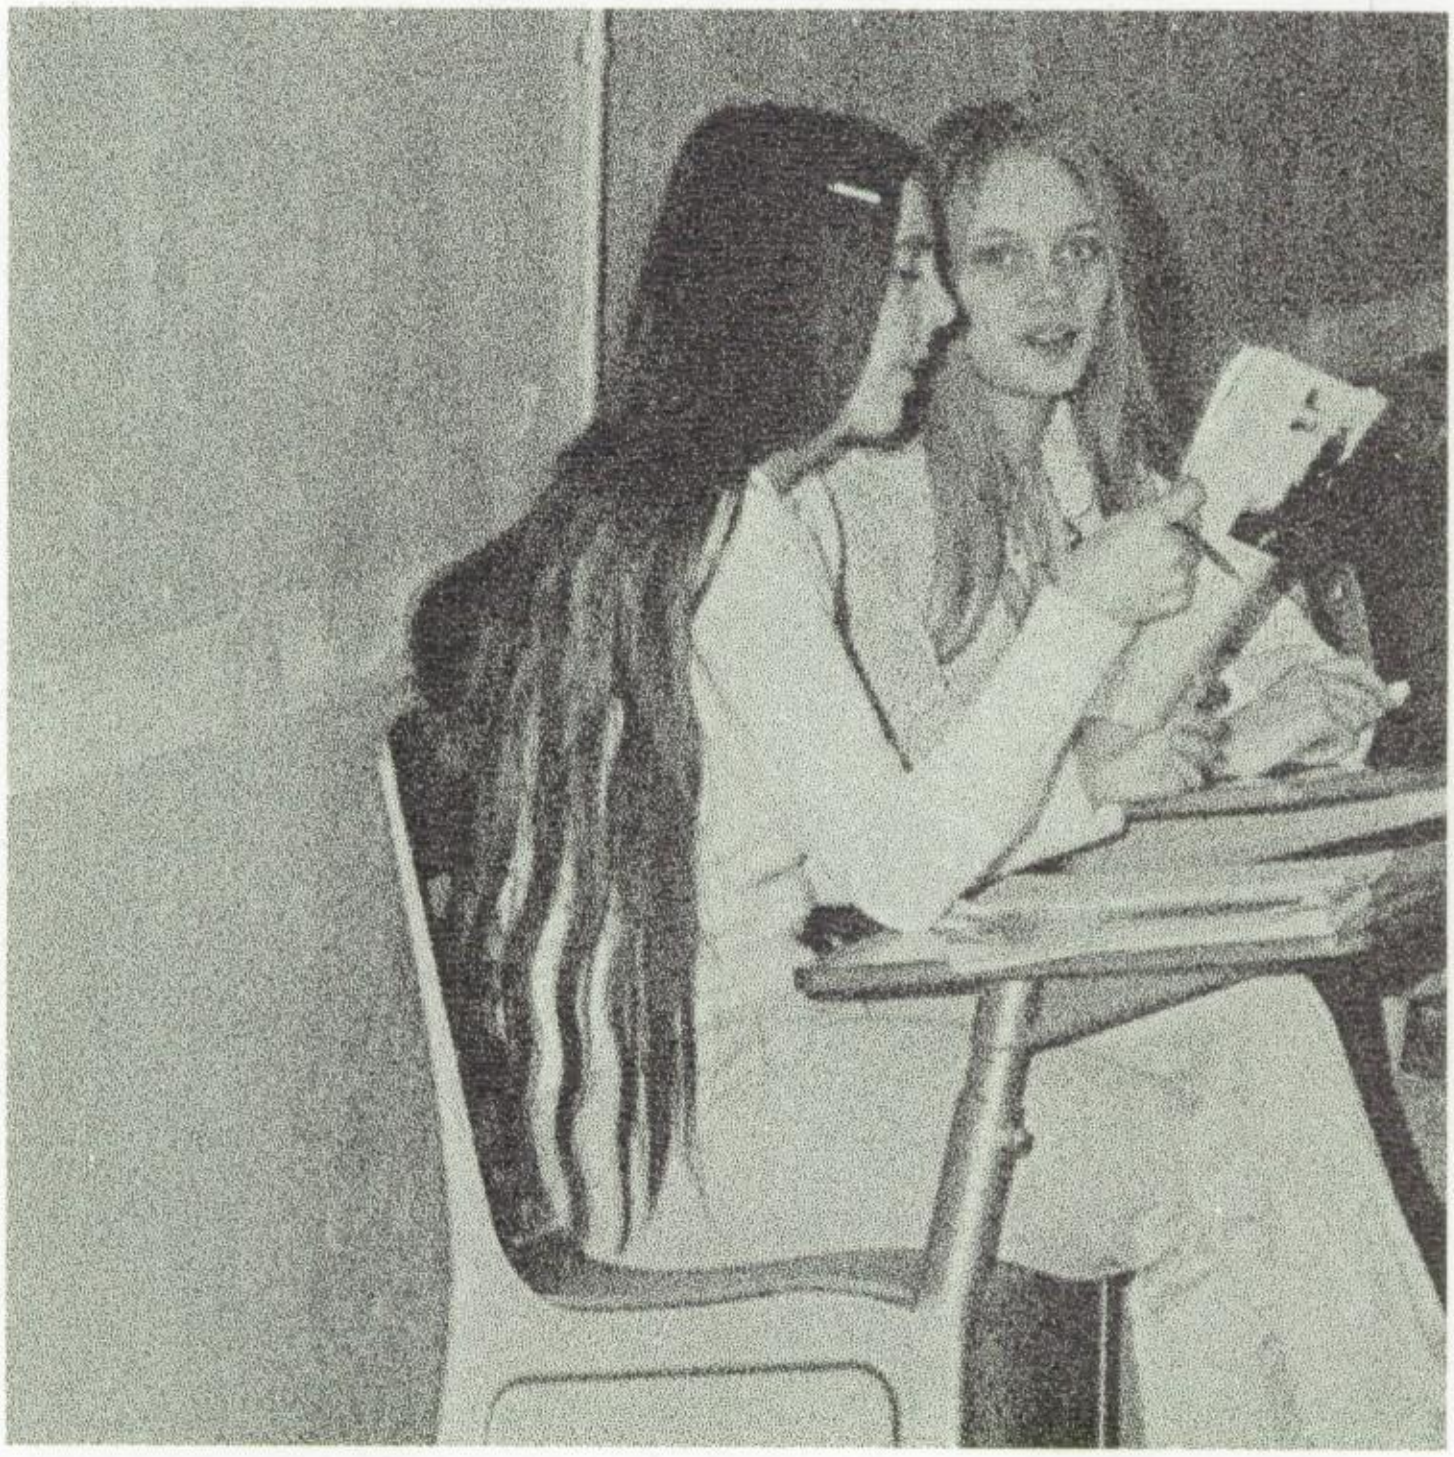
SENIORS

Our moment of fulfillment

Growth is an invisible progress...
Sometimes surrounded by false beginnings,
Awkward efforts, or misleading results.
But when the fog is penetrated,
A new life emerges...
The stirring of a new springtime.



SECRETARY: Gail Meendering; TREASURER: Sherri Veltkamp; VICE-PRESIDENT: Marv Anema; PRESIDENT: Ken Hengeveld.

Seniors—Class of '73

Class sponsors: Mr. Vanden Bosch & Mr. Bird.

To the Class of 1973
When you arrived here at Western Christian High School four years ago, I'm sure you thought the four years ahead would be endless. As you look back now, I'm certain the time seems a few fleeting seconds.

We as Administration and faculty are very happy to have been able to be a part of your development for these four years. We hope you realize now, if you haven't already, that all the work, all of the teaching, all of the good times and all of the discipline was done in love with the hope and prayer that all of these things would help you to know bad from good and right from wrong and God's Will in your life. We ask your forgiveness for our shortcomings. Your motto, "Less for self, more for others and All for God," indicates to us that much of training you've received here has not been in vain.

Whatever your future, wherever you go, we hope that you will continue to live your motto. May your days at Western truly have been days served in building for the future now before you. God bless and keep each and all of you in His care and keeping.

Thank You!

We, the Editors of the "Strums", would like to thank everyone who helped us with our yearbook. We'd like to thank those who sold and bought ads, and those who helped us in other ways. A special thanks goes to our staff of this year. They were a really great group to work with, and they were always willing to come and help us out on a last minute deadline. Thanks to our Junior editors, Karla and Lee, for their great help, and we wish them lots of success in making next year's yearbook!

Autographs

In the course of the year Mr. Gesink, you completed 30 years of continuous uninterrupted service to Western Christian High School as a Board Member. Most of these years were served as treasurer of the Board.

For such dedication and such service we are very happy to dedicate this years annual, "The Strums," to you. We thank God with you for this wonderful contribution. We are certain Western would not be where it is today had it not been for you. May God's choicest blessings continue to be yours and may you be enabled to continue your work here for many more years.

Mr. and Mrs. Gesink cut the cake, made in their honor.

Mr. Gesink always has a warm smile for everyone-even photographers.

Although the end of another school year has come, the life of a Christian never really ends.

Each day begins with special goals in mind, and ends with a feeling of contentment if the goals are met.

As another year begins, there are many new problems to be faced. And in all our moments to come, we must remember that God has given us these moments, and we must go out to live them for Him.

Many of us will be back again next year to begin another school year. Many problems will come up, and they'll be solved, and result in a little more understanding between students and faculty. But others of us, both students and teachers, will leave Western, perhaps sadly, but at any rate, much wiser. And even though we're leaving, we'll never forget this year at Western, these days of fun and laughter, sadness and faith-these moments of youth.
